

Resource Five: Peer Assessment of Writing

Please answer the following questions and provide the reasoning for your comments and answers. Your instructor will designate a few minutes of class time for you to exchange your critique with your partner and discuss your comments with one another.

1. What was this paper about? What were the three most important points made?
2. Who was the target audience?
3. What type of paper was this (argumentative, position, opinion, or research)?
4. What did you find most interesting about this paper?
5. What did you find frustrating in reading this paper?
6. Make an outline of the paper based on your reading.
7. Can you offer suggestions for improvement in the following areas
 - (a) Organization
 - (b) Support
 - (c) Evidence
 - (d) Flow
 - (e) Creativity
 - (f) Depth
 - (g) Relevance
 - (h) Clarity
 - (i) Accuracy
8. Did the paper capture your attention?
9. Please provide any additional comments that you may have.